Happy birthday kuttaahhh!!

Hey, what's up? How are you?

A very happy birthday to you! I miss you, I love u so much always and forever. I truly wish that all your dreams come true.

Do you remember the time during revision we were talking about growing up? We were just sitting together saying, Oh yeah, after one year we'll be in 11th, then 12th, the college, and so on. Now you're actually growing up, and it really feels different without your presence.

So, how do I start...I never actually thought I'll talk to you when I first came here. I am very picky about talking to new people and i kinda liked your vibe when I first talked to you. You are really cool about everything and we almost have same preferences. You are one of the best person I have met this year and i really hope we stay friends for a long time. I am just so grateful to you for buying me stuffs almost everything single day(nirthandaaa). I hope this year brings you lots of happiness and hope we'll get more close.

Dearest simra.

Honestly idk where to begin..

umm how fast time flies right i remember the day when you asked me to switch our places and I didn't even know this girl will be one of the reasons I'm surviving that shit school..and this girl would be the one to whom I share my insecurities..you just gets me somehow without even explaining anything more and u know tht I'm really an anxious person and the way u try to calm me no one has ever done that things to me and thante mood off aanel you will try hard to hide it but your not really good in that ketta..njnkk mnsilvummm so if you ever feel alone just text or call us ..

thank you for making me special for giving me company for listening to my dumb thoughts and you are working really hard and ik that sometimes it all gets dizzy but trust me it's gonna be fine one day and you will have a beautiful smile on your face... happy 17 LOVEEEE stay golden

-Ganga

Happy Birthday my sunshine!!!

Idk how to start but ik once I start I won't stop writing... hehe, weird ik . Honestly, I never thought we would be this close, like, who knew the girl I saw on the first day at the two places I went for a fresh start, and the girl I admired for her height, would turn out to be the one I would treasure the most in my entire life! Maybe God knew I need u to continue this journey ig.

So first of all thank u for coming into my life. Istg u r the best thing that has happened in my life among the very few good things that have ever happened to me. U changed my life completely, seriously idk, like I talk more openly and be my real self when I'm around u .

Almost my entire life I have tried to show only my responsible perfect side to everyone even the people I called best friends only knew that side, even Shivani knows only a part of me which I kind of act for others but u, gurl, u have seen the real me . I always thought people will leave me when they see the real me and how the life of the top scoring perfect teacher's favorite girl is but u stayed and I'm so thankful for that .

I'm so glad u came into my life and ik many people would be so thankful for u being in their lives so if u ever ever feel that no one cares abt u or u r worthless please, please read our letters and u will know HOW MUCH u mean to us.

Uk I don't call u my sunshine without a reason . I know my life would be miserable in SH if we didn't talk on the first day during that ceremony and thank God we did . If we hadn't then brooo I wouldn't have been friends with Dia and Malu as well! Just imagine! Ende amme orkan polum vaiya!

We have laughed together, cried together and spent so much money on supermarket eating potato chips and brooo those were the best moments of my life! Uk y I sent ur video to my phone because when I feel sad and feel no one cares or loves me I just open my phone and look at ur, Dia's and Malu's baby pics, our videos and photos together and after seeing all that I feel life is worth living because I have all these people with me who r so caring and loving so I feel maybe I am alive for a reason .

U have been there for everyone when they r in their worst state but idk how many people have been there for u when u needed them and honestly forget those who weren't there, they r stupid or in Dia's language human form of dumpster but remember I'm always there for u.

Maybe in the future we maybe not see each other for a long time as we will be going to different colleges but just text me or call me, I'm here always. I love u and will love u with all my heart . Please don't ever ever feel that no one loves u we all love u soooo much, we love u to the moon and back so be positive, be yourself and be happy.

I wish u all the happiness in the world and I always wish to see ur cute gummy smile my baddie muscle woman!

Happy birthdayyy once again and I hope u will have a great year! Study well, work hard and get rich u have a baby to take care of. Dw if u don't get rich, I will get rich and make u my stay-at-home wife. So follow ur heart and live ur life to the best!

I LOVE UU SOOOOOOOO MUCHHHH

-Ananya

Lovee-

Happy Birthday Simraaaa!!!

You're finally 17!!! Thats one year closer to your death. Dont worry, I'll make sure your funeral is grand, and I'll invite all your family and friends whom you want to your funeral.

We're not really certain that we'll be alive tomorrow, nor that we'll live to see the next hour. Sooo, every minute there is, I wanna spend it with you and make the most out of it. You are not just another person in my life-you are my best friend, someone whom I got close within less than a week. You proved that time has got nothing to do with how close we are to someone. It only took me three hours to get close to you and be comfortable around you...

I could tell you things that I can't tell anyone else.. sometimes you know me better than I know myself. You know things that not even the person whose been with me for 3 years know..that's the amount of comfort and trust I feel around you. I am really sorry that this letter isnt as long as a one I wrote for Krishna but every word, every sentence, every paragraph comes straight from a heart. I mean each and every word of it.

It may not be long but I'll make every word worth cherishing he may or may not be there in my life and he isn't- but you....your gonna be with me forever- like the rest of my life. I don't care if you want to leave or not, I won't allow you to leave. You mean a lot to me and I can't let you go no matter what. I have never been this open to anyone in my entire life and it's like- being around you is a best feeling there is.

And this letter isn't just a bunch of words, it's a reminder from all of us on how much you mean to us, how amazing of a person you are, how much your existence has changed our lives drastically. Each moment with you is a memorable one- not because it was an extraordinary event, it might be an ordinary event but your presence made it extraordinary.

You don't always be seventeen, it's once in a lifetime you get to be this age. Seventeen is special because it's the last year you are legally an child in India- the age you are free from responsibilities and pressure. I know we have a lot of responsible and pressure right now but... as you level up to 18 so will the responsibilities and pressure. They won't just level up they'll break you down so badly that sometimes giving up feels more easier and free. And when that time comes, I want you to take up your phone and ring me up, it doesn't matter if it's 3 in the morning (uk I don't sleep until its 4am) or that I am busy or sleeping or have my own problems to deal with.

Just give a call and will talk it out. If you don't want to call, just text me or come up to me, we could grab a few snacks and drinks and sit in silence until you feel free to open up.

Eitherway, we're going to talk through whatever problem there is and solve them. I don't know if we can solve them completely but we'll find a way. After that, we'll go and hangout somewhere and have the best time of our lives like nothing else matters okkaa

If by any chance, I am unable or you can't reach me call Ananya or any of your other friends. They are going to be there for you no matter what.

Whenever I write a letters, I tend to deviate from my topic very fast and go on some mini side quests and I still am doing it rn but, this feels different because I know exactly what I feel, what to write. My mind isnt in a panic mode because I know you never judge or criticize what I do.

You are one of the most loyal people I have in my life, even if I gift you something that's not worth keeping, you'll cherish it like its something of great value. You even kept the leaf I gave you when most people don't even accept that.

I don't care how many times I have to say this but I will keep on repeating this until you have finally understood how much you mean to me. You have got a beautiful soul- something that vast and pure, something that is extremely rare, like really rare-something that's once in a lifetime.

Thank you for everything you are done for me. Thank you for all the days you kept on listening to me yep about the same thing over and over again. Thank you for never leaving my side. Thank you for the warmth, comfort and peace you have given. Thank you for staying even when you had the chance to leave. Thank you for existing, you have no idea how much your existence means to me. If it weren't for you, I'd have probably turned into a zombie by now.... cause you were the one who brought life into my life. Imagine being alive and still being dead..... yeah that would be my situation if you never came into my life.

With all this saying, I am truly grateful to have you in my life— all those moments I spend with you were amazing. It was the best, the time I was the most happiest. Doing dumb things with you were and are always and forever my best memories of my school days.

I have never been this happy in my entire life before, never have I missed someone like how i miss you. You are the one who made SH sufferable (and Ananya and Ganga too) but spending time with you was the one thing I really looked forward to.

You annoy me, abuse me, torture me..but that's the one thing I really miss about you when your gone. You are one of a kind. You knkw when exactly to give motivation to do serious shits and when to do dumb things.

Whenever I suggest to do something extremely dumb and stupid and risky too maybe...u support me. We're like the "I'll do it if you do it" duo .I love the fact that you dont discourage me to do stupid things and make the best memories ever.

Thank you for all those great times and I hope we still are the same in the future.

Wishing you a very happy birthday and I lovee youu soo sooo muchhh

-Dia
